Ladies, maybe it's time to take control of your bra wardrobe, get help, and get fitted. Eight out of 10 women are wearing the wrong bra size—a fact that most of us are already aware of—yet we still walk into lingerie stores and let that mind-set take us over. Enough is enough! Lace Silhouettes Lingerie is here to help you.

Karen Thompson, founder of Lace Silhouettes Lingerie, believes that every woman should be able to “find the perfect bra.” She opened her first store in 1988 knowing that she wanted to create something unique: real lingerie for real women. Her purpose was to create a shopping experience that would focus on the customer, “our guest,” and her individual needs. Thompson’s philosophy is “one guest at a time”—treating everyone like a guest in her own home. Now, Lace Silhouettes Lingerie boutiques are the leading intimate apparel stores in the region.

Thompson believes that “in order to look great, you have to feel great.” She says that a fabulous bra can do just that. Not only will a properly fitting bra feel comfortable, but it will also instantly enhance your figure. When a bra fits correctly, it lifts and separates our girls and defines our waist. It is that simple!

Thompson loves Wacoal bras. An industry leader in comfort and support, Wacoal has been helping women look and feel fabulous for over 30 years. It's time to treat yourself to the simple luxury of Wacoal bras!

In 1988, Karen Thompson founded Lace Silhouettes Lingerie in Peddler’s Village in beautiful Bucks County, Pennsylvania. Her passion was to develop an intimate apparel brand that delivers more than the average shopping experience. Thompson’s vision grew into the idea that customers are treated as friends, like “a guest in our home.” Thompson and her friendly staff welcome new and returning guests into the shop every day, servicing them with everything from bras and panties to lingerie and sleepwear as well as lounge and everyday wear. Over the past 29 years, the beloved boutique has since grown to two more locations between Pennsylvania and New Jersey, continuing to stay true to the concept to inspire and empower women to look and feel great every day. Thompson also gives back to the community and has helped support over 25 local charities annually. Thompson’s commitment to helping her community led her company to be named “Best in Community Support in the USA” by Intima Magazine.
