

Mindy Snyder

Mindy Snyder is a lifelong resident of Bucks County. She graduated from Neshaminy Maple Point in 1982 and went on to receive her Bachelor of Arts in History from Penn State University in 1986, where she also obtained a minor in Middle Eastern Studies and Business. She received her Juris Doctorate in 1989 from Benjamin Cardozo School of Law, which is part of Yeshiva University in New York City. She has continuously practiced law since then, primarily in Bucks and the surrounding counties, for nearly 30 years. Ms. Snyder is also licensed and has an active practice in New Jersey. Since she started practicing law, she has found that her representation of clients developed to the point where she almost exclusively handles Family Law matters. She also has experience in various civil and criminal matters.

Practicing in Family Law includes all issues related to divorce, custody, support, equitable distribution, grandparent's rights, Protection from Abuse, Prenuptial Agreements, Adoption, and Children and Youth matters. Ms. Snyder works with you in helping to develop a strategy that best benefits you and your family whether it is through negotiations or litigation. Ms. Snyder is an active member and participant of the Bucks County Bar Association and the Pennsylvania Bar Association. Through this participation and involvement with the Family Law Committees, she is able to keep up to date on all developing case law, statutory changes, and trends in matrimonial law.

Since beginning the practice of law, Ms. Snyder has always offered a free consultation. The purpose of that initial meeting is important to make sure that you are comfortable proceeding with your chosen attorney. You must be sure of their legal knowledge and also be comfortable moving through an emotionally difficult process with the attorney. You can reach Ms. Snyder at Msnyder@liebmannfamilylaw.com or (215)860-8200. Liebmann Family Law handles all matrimonial and custody issues as well as the preparation of wills and estate planning.
