

COMING SOON!

WORTHWHILE THRIFT IN PLUMSTEADVILLE

5835 Easton Road
Plumsteadville, PA 18902

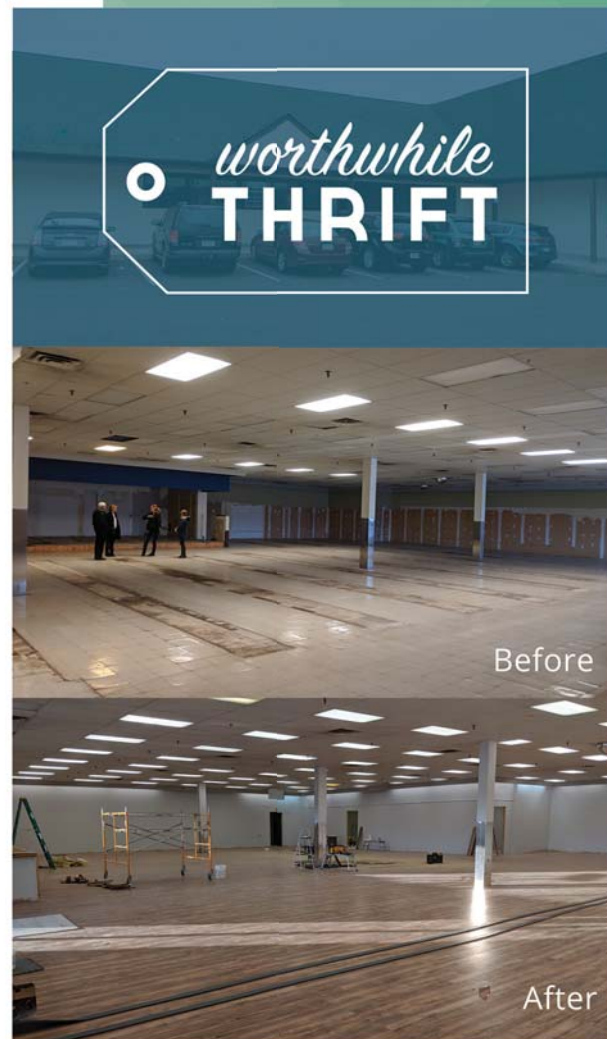

NEXT TO THE GIANT IN THE PLUMSTEADVILLE SHOPPING CENTER

Worthwhile Wear is excited to announce that our Worthwhile Thrift location in Fountainville has relocated to a larger space at 5835 Easton Road, in the Plumsteadville shopping center. Located next to the Giant in the former Rite Aid, this new store offers 6,000 square feet of retail space. We have Worthwhile Thrift stores support survivors of human trafficking in Bucks and surrounding counties.

many generous donors in the community and are ready to fill this location with donated items. This new site will be Worthwhile Thrift's main store for clothing and housewares while our Pipersville store will transition to offer mostly furniture. With just 1.7 miles between the Plumsteadville shopping center and our Pipersville location, the close proximity makes it easy for customers and donors to navigate from one store to the other in under 5 minutes.

TO LEARN MORE VISIT WORTHWHILEWEAR.ORG

Worthwhile Wear is a non-profit organization dedicated to reaching and restoring local survivors of human trafficking and forced prostitution through its long-term housing and community empowerment programs. These programs are financially supported through donors and through Worthwhile Thrift stores. We are so grateful for the individuals, businesses, organizations, and church groups that have volunteered their time, skills, and resources to renovate this space in order to further the work of Worthwhile Wear.

If you are interested in volunteering at the Plumsteadville store, visit the "Volunteer" section at worthwhilewear.org.