

The Bucks County Women's Journal

Reach Your Target Audience

The Bucks County Women's Journal is part of a nationally syndicated publication that has been rated the #1 Educational Newspaper for Women in the United States, according to a survey by U.S. World and Review. We are published bi-monthly and distributed free of charge throughout Bucks County.

The Bucks County Women's Journal seeks to educate and inform women and their families in meaningful ways. We challenge our contributors to demonstrate their expertise, insight, and enthusiasm for their professions and businesses by writing objective and educational articles.

Our contributors become known as "experts" in their field, while providing the readership with valued information about products, services and resources available to them – a huge benefit from a free publication!

Our publication format allows readers to gain an understanding of "who" the contributor is prior to making the first phone call. This is paramount to businesses that rely on the "personal touch." In addition to our readers being able to make educated and informed choices, our contributors benefit by having access to a savvy and discerning readership – the affluent, higher-educated women of Bucks County.

A publication dedicated to educating women
