

My Hair Is Thinning. Do I Have Options?

Anita Polin has worked in the beauty industry for over 40 years. Education is her passion, and she has been teaching for 17 years. Anita presently travels to salons in New York, Pennsylvania, and Virginia teaching stylists about color and hair products. She finds that helping others succeed in the industry she loves is very rewarding. Her love for wigs and hair additions began when she worked for Disney World. Seeing how people change when they put something on that makes them feel beautiful started Anita thinking. She went on to take advanced training in wig work for men and women. She says, "In this industry, we change lives. I am just as excited today as I was when I first started my career. I'm always learning, sharing my knowledge, and helping people feel amazing!"

Fine thin hair can present a concern when you can't get the results you are looking for. Some people are born with fine hair. Others gradually begin to see thinner hair as they age or because of a medical condition. If your hair suddenly begins to thin, I recommend a consultation with your doctor.

But, in the meantime, what can you do to help make your hair look and feel healthier and to add more body to it? Proper products for your hair type can make a big difference in your appearance.

Begin with a body-building shampoo that also has color protection. Use a conditioner on your hair's midshaft and ends only. This will allow more volume at the root area. Root-lifting products and extra body styling products will also support your style.

Comb through all the products before blow drying. I recommend Eufora products, and here at Salon 360 we have several lines that can support your style. Our staff can help you choose the products that will work best for you.

If you have tried all this but have noticed it just isn't enough, then I recommend you come into the salon for a free consultation. You do have other choices that can help you to feel confident about the way your hair looks. I can show you hair additions that are very natural looking and give you exactly what your hair needs to look fuller but still natural. During our consultation, we will customize your length and density to match exactly what you need.

You can choose either a hair addition or a full-coverage piece. I have worked with hair additions for over 20 years. Helping people look great is a passion of mine. When you look and feel younger and see how easy it can be, it will be a life-changing experience for you.

Salon 360 provides hair additions for both men and women. We have a private area for your comfort.
