

PENN FOUNDATION
BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES

Instilling Hope. Together.

Penn Foundation is the newest member of St. Luke's University Health Network!

With Penn Foundation joining the Network, St. Luke's now operates the largest nonprofit network of inpatient and outpatient behavioral health services in eastern Pennsylvania. Additionally, our combined services will establish a complete continuum of care to treat patients with behavioral health and substance use disorders.

Penn Foundation is a nonprofit, community-based behavioral health provider with 25 behavioral health and substance use treatment programs that serve more than 17,000 individuals annually. It operates one of Pennsylvania's first Opioid Use Disorder Centers of Excellence and is an Aetna Institute of Quality and an Independence Blue Cross Center of Distinction.

807 Lawn Avenue, Sellersville, PA 18960 • 215-257-6551 • sluhn.org/pennfoundation