

Moving into our fall exhibit season with Jean Childs Buzgo and Desmond McRory . . .

by Rhonda Garland
Owner, Silverman Gallery

Since 2014, it's been an absolute pleasure to be able to show and sell the work of Jean Childs Buzgo and Desmond McRory at the Silverman Gallery. Both artists came to the attention of Herman Silverman and I by winning top awards for their paintings in 2013.

Coastline Girl (2016)
by Desmond McRory - 18 x 24 in., o/b
In private collection, Doylestown, PA

The Lambertville House (2016)
by Jean Childs Buzgo - 16 x 12 in., o/b
In private collection, Newtown, PA

Every working artist evolves over time, exploring new paths that take them elsewhere. Both Jean and Desmond are inspired close to home or by trips to the shore, the mountains or abroad, they can't help but soak up the light and rhythm of each new place or experience. There is also growth due to experimenting with new materials, brushes or techniques.

Springtime (2014)
by Desmond McRory - 18 x 24 in., o/b
In private collection, Clinton, NJ

Painting away in his studio in Stockton, NJ, Desmond claims that having his work hanging and selling in the gallery changed everything for him. He doubts that he could have sustained his passion for painting without it having a consistent and appreciative audience. He certainly has garnered that. His fans regard his paintings as tangible examples of calm and serenity.

Here we are showing off some of their earlier work that happily resides in local collections. Look for previews of their new work in the next Bucks County Women's Journal and join us for their openings this fall!
