

This Is What Our Advertisers Say About The Bucks County Women's Journal!

"The BCWJ has been my number 1 source of new clients for several years! Just about every time someone calls to inquire about my services, they say they heard about me by reading my article in the paper. It's a FANTASTIC way to demonstrate your areas of expertise to prospective clients while also advertising your product or service. You're missing a wonderful opportunity to expand your business if you're not yet advertising in this superb publication!"

I have been a contributor to the Bucks County Women's Journal for the past 12 years. It is always a pleasure to work with Robin Coppinger from the paper to get my article published. She truly cares about her contributors as much as the people who read this extraordinary newspaper, which they can pick up free all around the area or view online. I know people are reading the BCWJ because I get calls from people who have seen my article as well as people I run into who comment on what I've written. I highly recommend that you pick up a copy because, as Robin says, "It's free, but it's priceless!"

"The Bucks County Women's Journal allows my practice to provide up-to-date information on a variety of audiology and hearing healthcare-related topics to women in the Bucks and Montgomery County area. I have been amazed by the number of new patients — women and men — who contacted my office after reading the BCWJ. My hat is off to you for an outstanding publication with a wide variety of local authors with a timely message for our readers. Truly outstanding!"

"What an amazing support to my business since I began working with Robin. It has been 7 years of unique business opportunity and growth. My clients were so excited to have another option to find information and support for hair loss and hair additions. Robin, thank you for giving me the avenue to help new clients find exactly what they are looking for."
